

43rd MORPETH NORTHUMBRIAN GATHERING

Friday to Sunday 9th-11th April 2010

GROUP B COMPETITIONS

Writing & Composing

dialect poetry & prose, short stories, history, plays, songs and tunes
~~ for children and adults

General Rules for all Competitors

- (1) ENTRIES: Each entry must be the entrant's own work, and, unless significantly altered for the sake of improvement, must not have been entered before in the same class.
- (2) ENTRY FORMS: A separate form per competition is needed, but it may include more than one entry to that class by the same entrant/writers' group/collaborators/school. Entry forms (available from the addresses in 14 below) must be filled in fully (including competition numbers & names); copied forms (same size and information) or photocopies may be used.
- (3) ENTRY FEE: Children's competitions are free. For each other class an entry fee of £1 for one item, or £2.00 for two or more items entered, is to be paid on sending/ delivering entries and forms. Please make any cheques payable to MNGC.
- (4) CLOSING DATE: Saturday 20th March 2010, except for children's classes, which are Saturday 3th April 2010; please send to Westgate House (address below). Late entries may be acceptable -- please ring to check.
- (5) MANUSCRIPTS: Must be marked on the front with titles/class no./entrant's name. Tapes/CDs may be entered without manuscripts to composing classes B1, B2a/b/c only (one tape/CD per composing class is needed, except that B2a/b/c can share one); manuscripts must be entered to all other classes (except B11, 12, 14). Manuscripts will not be returned; tapes/CDs can be returned in due course, but see publication note below.
- (6) PUBLICATION: The magazine of the Gathering and the Northumbrian Language Society, "Northumbria", tries to review all B6/7 entries and in time to publish in full or in part entries in the other classes. Great delays in this process must be expected. Quality and brevity help to hasten publication. Classes B1/2: while cassette/CD-only entries suffice for judging, a score (especially if camera-ready) speeds up publication. Production difficulties have prevented the magazine appearing for a while: contact Westgate House (see 14) for further details.

(7) COPYRIGHT: Your entering authorizes publication in "Northumbria" of your entry if selected, with such abbreviation and adjustment as is deemed needful, but you retain full copyright in both entered and published versions, and enquirers will be referred to you (please report any change of address to Westgate House).

(8) AWARDS: First in each class receives and keeps a plaque, and in most cases holds a trophy for the year. Other placed/commented entrants receive and keep certificates. Awards are presented at the Dialect Recital, or held at Westgate House until collected (name & year may then be engraved on trophy at entrant's expense; please consult Westgate House if repairs are needed or if there is no space left for name). Full results will be published on the website as soon as possible.

(9) DIALECT RECITAL, Gathering Saturday, St Robert's Church Hall (rear of Collingwood House, Oldgate, Morpeth): entrants to Dialect Classes B3a/B3b/B5 are expected to recite one or more entries, or provide deputy-reciters. The Committee has the right to withhold an award in the absence of the entrant or a deputy without good reason. A free ticket is sent to each entrant to Dialect Classes B3a/B3b/B5 for him/her self or deputy (Recitation/Story Telling competitions 1.30; Recital about 2.30, including B award presentations).

(10) "NORTHUMBERLAND"/"NORTHUMBRIAN" refer to the area Tweed-Tyneside (both banks; including "Geordie"). DIALECT AREA: Entrants may wish to indicate area (e.g. Tyneside, Coquetdale, general) applicable to their entry.

(11) ENTRIES LIMIT: Not more than four entries per class from any entrant or collaboration.

(12) GRADED CLASSES: Though most B Group classes are Open, where there is also a Novice Class, no item may be entered in more than one class in the same year; nor may an entrant expect or ask an official or judge to allocate his/her entries amongst the classes.

(13) BARRED ENTRANTS: Having been 1st in a Gathering Novice class, an entrant may not re-enter it, nor enter a class after being placed in a higher class. Anyone winning an Open class thrice in succession is barred from that class the following year (only).

(14) ENQUIRIES: to Westgate House, Dogger Bank, Morpeth NE61 1RE (sae please); phone 01670 513308; www.northumbria.org.uk. COMPETITION LEAFLETS & ENTRY FORMS: (including other categories: A Arts/Crafts; C Performing) from the above; also, from 1st March, at Morpeth Tourist Information Centre (01670 500700), The Chantry, Bridge Street, Morpeth, NE61 1PD.

Competition Rules

COMPOSING

B1: SONG COMPOSITION: for an original song, words and music, in a Northumbrian tradition, by the entrant, or composer-lyricist collaboration; Northumbrian language welcomed; Northumbrian setting/theme expected; entry by score and/or tape/CD (see Gen. Rule 6), preferably both, but judged on merits of song, not of manuscript or tape/CD. NB: Original words for an existing tune should be entered in Class B3, not in B11; and an original tune for existing words in Class B2a, not B1; permission to so use another's copyright tune or words having been obtained.

B2a: MELODY COMPOSITION: for an original melody in a Northumbrian tradition, by the entrant; entry by score and/or tape as in B1 above.

B2b: COMPOSING EXCELLENCE: for the entrant of the best group of three melodies, not all in the same rhythm, to Class B2a. Separate entry is not needed: the judges will review all entries of 3+ melodies in Class B2a.

B2c: VARIATIONS COMPOSITION: for original variations by the entrant in a Northumbrian tradition on the entrant's or another composer's melody (permission of copyright-holder being already obtained if necessary); entry by score and/or tape (see Gen. Rules 5 & 6).

NORTHUMBRIAN LANGUAGE WRITING

B3a: NOVICE VERSE: for an original poem in a Northumbrian dialect of up to about 5 minutes' recitation time; manuscripts judged (see Gen. Rule 9) on literary and dialect merits and traditional verse forms.

B3B: OPEN VERSE: as for Class B3a.

B4: JUNIOR DIALECT VERSE: entrants, children aged under 14 on Gathering Saturday; entry, as for Class B3a, except for recital requirement; school multiple entry welcomed.

B5: DIALECT PROSE: for an original prose piece in a Northumbrian dialect; judged as in Class B3a excluding verse requirement. (See Gen. Rule 9.)

B15: JUNIOR DIALECT PROSE: entrants as for Class B4; entry, an original prose piece in a Northumbrian dialect of up to about five minutes' recitation time; no recitation requirement.

STANDARD ENGLISH WRITING CLASSES

B6: STAGE SKETCH: for an original stage sketch, drama or comedy, of up to about 15 minutes' duration, set in and characterizing Northumberland or Northumbrians in any period (Northumbrian language as and when appropriate); judged on stage-worthiness and Northumbrian character.

B8: SHORT STORY: for an original story of up to 1200 words, set in and characterizing Northumberland / Northumbrians in any period; in English or Northumbrian or both as appropriate.

B13: JUNIOR SHORT STORY: for an original story of up to about 1000 words, relating to Northumbrians young or old and/or Northumberland in any period, involving Northumbrian language as and when appropriate, written by a child aged under 14 on Gathering Saturday; school multiple entry welcomed.

B9: ESSAY: for an original essay of up to 1500 words, on any aspect(s) of Northumbrian people / life / character / tradition / humour / environment, etc. in any period(s); serious or light-hearted; judged on literary merit, perceptiveness and Northumbrian character.

B10: LOCAL HISTORY ARTICLE: for an original treatise of up to 2500 words on any aspect or related aspects of Northumbrian economic / social / political / military / biographical / architectural history, or topography, or language / literature; reference to sources to be listed (outside word limit).

B11: JUNIOR LOCAL HISTORY PROJECT: entrant aged under 14 on Gathering Saturday; entry, an original study (any presentation medium allowed), giving reference sources, of any Northumbrian historical/social/environmental topic.

B12: SENIOR LOCAL HISTORY PROJECT: entrant aged 14-18 years on Gathering Saturday; entry as for Class B11 above.

B14: GROUP LOCAL HISTORY PROJECT: a school class/set/group of children all aged under 14 years on Gathering Saturday; entry as for Class B11.

NOTE: Classes B7a and B7b alternate, B7a in odd-numbered years and B7b in even-numbered years.

2010: B7b: THREE-ACT PLAY: for a synopsis and two completed scenes of an original 3-act play, set in and characterizing Northumberland and Northumbrians in any period(s): judged on stage-worthiness and Northumbrian character; Northumbrian language as and when appropriate.

(Next year only, 2011: B7a: NOVEL: for a synopsis and two completed chapters of an original novel, set in and characterizing Northumberland and Northumbrians in any period.)
